YOUNG ADULT & CROSSOVER
THE CRIMINAL READERS’ SOCIETY
CARLOS GARCÍA MIRANDA

BEWARE OF THE KILLER CLOWN!

When she joins a reading club at the library of her University, Julia can’t imagine the macabre game that is only just starting. Caught up in an “innocent” joke meant to frighten her literature professor, she ends up an accomplice to murder. Along with her classmates, Julia tries to erase the incriminating clues, but the appearance of a mysterious character on a social network puts all of them in danger. The unknown person extorts Julia and her classmates, but his plan goes beyond that: he wants to kill them. One by one, he traps them, narrating the serial murder via Wattpad. As they investigate, in a quest to save their own lives, they realize that the killer has a pattern… and it is from Stephen King’s books. Is it possible that the killer is one of them?

KEY POINTS

• A novel combining fan fiction with a pure tale of terror in the style of the master of the genre: Stephen King.
• Carlos García Miranda takes key references from the pages of Stephen King and builds a totally new story that will seduce and terrify us at the same time. A serial killer among the students at an university, a group of friends where no one is what they seem, secrets that can’t be confessed, and a nerve-wracking race against the clock…
• A YA novel with great crossover potential!

MY OTHER HALF
ANDREA IZQUIERDO

A PERFECT COMBINATION OF ROMANTIC NOVEL AND JUVENILE THRILLER.

Emily begins a new life removed from her past marked by the disappearance of her twin sister, Aria. Since that event, all tranquility has vanished from her world. Looking in the mirror becomes a nightmare and it’s impossible to walk down the street without everyone confusing her face with that of the girl who appears on the news. But in Crescent City a new future seems just around the corner. One that has the name of Liam, a boy with a past like Emily’s, full of pain. But as Liam’s secrets and hers begin to converge, the truth gets closer and closer…
WOLFGANG (EXTRAORDINARY)
LAIA AGUILAR

A BOOK FULL OF VALUES. A CROSSOVER HIT.

Wolfgang is an 11-year-old boy with an IQ of 152. He likes to make lists of impossible things, snack between mealtimes, find out how to travel to Neptune and fantasize about becoming a great pianist. His great passion is playing the piano, which is how he takes refuge from his emotions. After his mother’s untimely death, he is forced to go to live with his father, who is a stranger to him, but he comes up with a plan to run away to the best music academy in the world. During the trip, he will find out who his father really is, the family secret hidden by the ‘grown-ups’ and why he is so afraid of something he has never tried to explain before...

KEY POINTS
• The movie based on the novel will be out this year!
• Winner of the 2016 Carlemany Prize for the promotion of reading. A prize awarded by young readers!
• Eligible for a full translation grant.

THE GRANDMOTHER
CHRISS PUEYO

INTENSE CHARACTERS, PERSONAL SACRIFICES, MOVING EXPERIENCES, AND THE AUTHENTIC STYLE OF CHRIS PUEYO COME TOGETHER IN A STIRRING NOVEL THAT SPEAKS TO READERS HEART-TO-HEART.

In this new novel, Chris Pueyo describes the life of his grandmother, his pillar, Carmen, who raised him during his childhood and adolescence, and introduces us to the youth and mature years of a strong, independent woman whose experience and life path are a lesson in bravery and humanity. In a tale of crossed lives, her story interweaves with the author’s own in a multigenerational book of testimony, memoir, and the social history of a country.

A BRAVE AND EXCITING NOVEL OF SELF-IMPROVEMENT WITH THE LGTB THEME AS A BACKDROP.

Once upon a time there was a boy who had a mum but no mum who cared for him. They never lived in the same place for more than a couple of years, so he decided to paint all those different bedrooms with stars in order to find “the second star to the right” that led the way towards a better future. At the age of 17, and after having been bullied at high school because of his sexual condition, he fled to London. Finally, he came back home knowing he had found his inner star, the one that “shines in the night for you to tell you that the dreams you plan really can come true”.

“Just like what happened to me with ‘Wonder’ or ‘The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nightime’, I fell in love with an unconventional character that inspires a lot of tenderness.” —GoodReads—

“A book for those who still dare to be who they really are. Risking to lose everything. Or winning without limits.” —Chris Pueyo—
NOW THAT WE ARE TOGETHER

ROC CASAGRAN

Ahora que estamos juntos

A HOPEFUL NOVEL ABOUT THE REFUGEES THAT ALL WAR LEAVES BEHIND.

Tòfol was just a child when the war broke out in Spain and separated him from his twin brother Tian, with whom he was very close. In an emotional letter addressed to him, Tòfol will tell his life in those years away from each other, a life full of struggle, exile, innocence and love.

“And from that day on, we called that rudimentary hut The Mansion. It was a way of learning that, against horror, we only have humor left, and since in that beach everything was horror, everything happened to be humor. Black humor, of course.”

THE AWAKENING OF THE MUSES

BEATRIZ LUENGO

El despertar de las musas

A VINDICTIVE TRIBUTE TO 12 INSPIRING MUSES THAT WERE NOT RECOGNIZED AT THEIR TIME.

Did you know that Mozart himself recognized that he would never have the musical talent of his sister, Nannerl? Or that half of Einstein’s theories were developed by Mileva Maric, his first wife whom almost nobody remembers?

In The Awakening of the Muses, Beatriz Luengo discovers the most intimate part of 12 creative muses that were not recognized at their time. An admirable literary mosaic that combines history, fiction, poetry and personal reflection, and vindicates the need to understand the feminist struggle as it really is: a movement for human rights.

COMING-OF-AGE

61
The train that is taking the students of Conexo through the mountains on their Winter Break derails as it’s going through a tunnel. Five students in their final year, Eva, Noel, Sabina, Gabi and Sam, are the only survivors. But no one comes to rescue them, and the snowy mountains turn into a labyrinth where inexplicable things start to happen. Fighting the elements and their own frictions, they manage to make it home, where it seems no one has missed them.

Because when they get to Conexo they find five identical teens have taken their place...

Why have they been duplicated? What did really happen in that mountain tunnel?

Why are the past and the future now weaving together inside their heads? They have to solve the mystery, or the world is going to collapse. And it will all be their fault.

Helen has done it again. Yes, she has fallen in love again. She went to London for a nursing internship to forget his ex and... oops! And this time is worse than ever, that boy is a real dream: Carlo, Italian, brunette, artist and a gentleman. What else can you ask for? But life is not going to make it easy for her, and to get the award of “The luckiest girl on the planet” she will have to face Aneléh, a mysterious girl with only one purpose: to make her life impossible.

Immerse yourself in this fun story, which reminds us that there are no blue princes, no happy endings, because love can surprise us with other outcomes, sometimes even better than the ones we had first expected.

THE BOOK THAT WILL MAKE US BELIEVE IN LOVE AGAIN.

Harper has planned every detail of her future. Soon she will finish her degree and will start the career for which she has worked so hard. She will have the life she wants. However, a sudden loss will make her perfect plan, what she thought she wanted more than anything, turn again into confusion, doubts and insecurities.

Because secrets cannot be kept forever. Because there are paths destined to cross.

Because one decision can change everything and nothing is more scary than risking your dreams.

Because life is not about surviving the storm, but about learning to dance under it.

ZHARA’S GAME
ÁN格尔 LUIS SUCASAS

THE NOVEL IN WHICH YOU CAN PLAY WITH THE VIDEOGAMES CREATED BY THE CHARACTERS

Judy is a girl from Kansas who learned to shoot cans with a revolver when she was five years old. Amaro is a boy from Galicia who has always felt he was missing something.

Their lives will change forever when they catch the train from Chicago to San Francisco to take part in an exciting contest for videogame creators. There they will meet Zhara, a young Muslim girl who moves, startles, and unsettles them with every one of her small interactive artworks. Before Zhara, their lives were going nowhere. After Zhara, fate will give them a mission: deciphering the latest work of this disturbing artist, an unfinished piece that is far more than a videogame... it's Zhara’s game.

KEY POINTS

- A complete transmedia experience: web series, comic, videogames, and literature.
- The novel will be supplemented by a series of ten to twelve videogames developed by Alpixel Games, nominated for four Goya Awards in 2014.
- The novel can be read from the perspective of Amaro and Judy. The end of the two stories is in the middle of the book being a capicúa novel and in the central pages you will discover a letter of Zhara sent to each of the characters in comic format. You can also play with the video games created by the characters.

DAD, WHERE DOES THE SUN PLUG IN?

ANTONIO MARTÍNEZ & KIM AMATE

At some point, every child starts wondering about life, death, the Universe, the Earth, weather events... as well as more simple questions like why do we laugh when someone tickles us or why do we yawn.

Laura is a very curious girl, and she and her father like to play a game before going to bed: she asks him questions about the world in a whimsical way and he tries to remove all her doubts. A book that will help parents and children to play this game and make up more and better questions every night!

A CHILD’S CURIOSITY IS ONE OF SOCIETY’S ASSETS: LET’S MAKE QUESTIONS!

CHALLENGES, QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR THE NEW BOYS OF TOMORROW

WARNING! This book contains the secret to get your superpowers. If you read these pages and get over the challenges that it proposes, you will discover the true and unequaled strength that dwells in you.

Boys need to grow freed from the ties and stereotypes that make them less happy and capable. We have to expand the possibilities of being a boy: create a new masculinity, positive and diverse, that will lead boys to be connected with their emotions.
THE BIG BOOKS OF WHYS

250 QUESTIONS TO ANSWER THE DOUBTS OF THE MOST CURIOUS AND DEMANDING.

Why is the sea water salty? Why do boats float? Why does popcorn pop? Why is the rainbow an arc? Life is full of whys and in this book children can find the answers to many of them.

A fun and instructive book divided into thematic areas, including questions about nature, the universe, science and technology, history, etc. In addition, each chapter includes some experiments related to some of the questions.

Children will also have the opportunity to check what they have learnt with the tests at the end of each chapter.

MY FAMILY

A MODERN WAY TO ANSWER THE QUESTION “WHERE DO BABIES COME FROM?”

Paul will soon have a little brother.

Martine wonders why she only has a mom.

And John remembers when he was adopted...

My Family is a story created with the advice of the medical team of Dexeus Institute. Through it, young readers will become familiar with the variety of families they live with every day and will discover the different ways a baby can be conceived.

A warm, thorough and simple book to understand the origin of life and reflect on the family diversity.
